- Merciful One, we acknowledge our wrongdoing to you; we do not conceal our faults. Like unbridled mules, we wander from you. We flee to the uttermost parts of the sea and wrap the darkness around us like night. Our understanding fails and our faith grows dim. We refuse the light-breaking, heart-softening presence of your Spirit, and divide ourselves from each other. Forgive us, O God, and set us on a right path. Grant us kindness toward others and patience with ourselves. Help us to look toward you and be thankful in the midst of all our circumstances. Amen.
