PRAYER OF CONFESSION unison

Shelley Coldren

Compassionate God, we often forget that the opposite of love is not hate but indifference. When we fail to care, we neglect to show the love of Jesus Christ for the world and we become his antithesis. He served; we want to be served. He healed; we sow discord. He lived a sacrificial life; we are hesitant to give of ourselves. Forgive us, O God. Make serving the thing we live for; hoping the thing we die for; and blessing others the deed we desire to do above all others. Help us to let your Spirit move in and through us, as we learn to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you, our God. Amen.
