THE COMMUNITY GATHERS TOGETHER

MUSIC TO REFLECT ON June: Barcarolle from The Seasons (by Tchaikovsky) Pinshu Yu, pianist

* WE CALL THE COMMUNITY TO WORSHIP responsive Diana Lee, Liturgist

The women and men who followed Jesus had experienced his Risen Spirit, and the time came for them to take responsibility for advancing the kingdom.

Together they waited for something Jesus had promised – the gift of the Holy Spirit that would come to each one of them to guide and support them.

And on the morning of the 50th day, it came in dramatic fashion. People of many different ethnic and language groups suddenly sensed something powerful was happening to them– something that transcended but included all their differences.

And in that shared experience, the church was born.

* WE SING TOGETHER “On Pentecost They Gathered” (vss. 1,2,3) Glory to God, #289
Hymnal, #128

WE CONFESS TOGETHER unison Diana Lee

Spirit of God, we owe our lives to you. We owe our faith to you. Without you we would not have our world–wide community of faith. Without you we would not have the collective memory of all your teachings. Without you we would not have the images and music and stories that inspire us. Forgive us for taking all this for granted. Help us appreciate each one of the gifts you have given to your people. Help us make good use of all your gifts. This we pray in the name of your greatest gift, Jesus Christ.

(time for silent reflection on our own life)

WE PROCLAIM GOD’S GRACE responsive Diana Lee

In Jesus’ presence, in that fullness of grace, our hearts are full and our minds become clear. In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and made new.

Thanks be to God for all of God’s countless blessings!

SUNG RESPONSE “On Pentecost They Gathered” (v. 4) Glory to God, #289
Hymnal, #128

* WE EXCHANGE CHRIST’S PEACE

May the peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

After the three hour experience, our group was very impressed and wants our congregation to know more about it. We hope many of you will be able to attend.
